

CITY CHURCHES OBSERVE GOOD FRIDAY TODAY

Special Services In Many Salem Places Of Worship

MINISTERS SELECT CRUCIFIXION THEME

Many Churches Will Hold
Communion Service
Tonight

Good Friday, known as the day of suffering, trial and crucifixion of Jesus Christ to Christians throughout the world, will be observed in Salem churches today.

The Presbyterian church has been holding special services each evening this week, the pastor, Dr. P.
H. Gordon, using for his general theme, "The Last Seven Words of Christ on the Cross."

While there will be no sermon tonight, as it is a communion service, the text will be "It is finished.
Father into thy hands I commit my spirit."

The communion celebration will be followed by a reception for new members.

Sunday school night will be observed in the revival service tonight at the M. E. church, and the pastor, Rev. L. S. Rose, will speak on "Coming Home."

The First Baptist church has been holding a series of meetings this week and tonight Rev. A. C. Westphal, the pastor, announces his subject will be "Calvary's Thunder and Wonder."

"A Farewell Word of the Dying Christ" is the subject announced by Rev. B. E. Rutzky pastor of Emmanuel Lutheran church for the English passion service tonight at this church.

Masses were held during the morning at St. Paul's Catholic church. Services are also scheduled for this evening.

Rev. G. D. Keister, pastor of the English Lutheran church, will speak on "Light in Darkness" at the Friday night service at this church.

At the service at 7:30 p. m. Friday at the Church of Our Saviour, the pastor, Rev. C. A. Roth, will give a summary of the seven last words of Christ on the Cross. Three other services were held at this church today at 10 a. m., 12 noon and 4 p. m.

INSPECTOR LAUDS SCHOOL IN SALEM

High School Excellent, Is Statement; Praises
Recitation Plan

Conditions at Salem high school were highly commended by L. R.
Reese, state high school inspector, of Columbus, following the annual inspection of the institution, Thursday.

Reese, speaking before the general school assembly Thursday afternoon based his favorable report on three factors:

The fine spirit of pupils; the form of recitation and the personnel of the school's teaching staff.

A complete official report will be submitted to the board of education at a future meeting, Lewis stated. Few recommendations for changes will be made.

Reese emphasized the cooperative spirit exemplified by the students and their willingness to work with the teachers in all activities.

He spoke of the system of recitation—the socialized plan—which has been in use in all public schools for ten years, since its introduction by J. E. Allen superintendent, as a progressive movement to bring all pupils into the classroom discussion.

near Atwater.

Following the accident, he was taken to a physician's office and later removed to his home.

Late Wednesday afternoon, police were called by neighbors. Sergeant found the man lying on his cot with president of the Thompson Aeronautical Corporation.

Appropriations Bill Passes Ohio House Overwhelmingly; Gas Tax Measure Unlikely

Measure Providing $114,865,097 for 1929 and 1930
Passes By Ballot of 113 to 6; Carries Provisions
For Township Road Aid

Columbus, O., March 29.—Passage of the general appropriations bill by an overwhelming vote in the lower house of the state legislature, today left supporters of the increased gasoline tax bill without a prop to lean upon.

Carrying appropriations for operation of the state for the years

MALT MEASURE GETS APPROVAL OF COMMITTEE

Bill Would Make Sale
And Possession Of Malt Illegal

PASSAGE DOUBTED
BY LEGISLATORS

Vision Attempt To Alter
Measure; Ridicule
Suggested

Columbus, O., March 29.—A scare today had been thrown into the "home brew" manufacturers of the state by the action of a "dry" temperance committee of the house of representatives yesterday in placing its stamp of approval on the Piper bill which would make the sale and possession of malt syrup illegal.

Though the bill was backed by the W. C. T. U., and received a 11 to 1 vote when it was recommended out for passage, enactment of the measure into a law, still seems impossible in view of the sentiment of other members of both the senate and the lower house.

Three ministers and five women are included in this committee.

Members of the committee may also have been concerned in administering a "rebuke" to the Anti-Saloon league, for it is admitted that the action of the committee was unnecessary inasmuch as the conspiracy law of the Crabbe act already provides punishment for such violations.

For a first offense against the proposed law, a fine of from $10 to $50 would be assessed, and for each subsequent offense a fine of from $50 to $200 could be imposed.

Ridicule will be the chief weapon in fighting this bill when it is brought before the house, it was forecasted. Such amendments as making the sale of sugar, grapes, gingerale, soda water and other such materials illegal will be offered to ridicule the bill. Another means presents itself in an amendment which would eliminate that section providing fines for offense.
This would take the "sting" out of the bill.

The rules committee which sets down the legislative calendar for each day can also block action on the bill, by ignoring it.

PRISONER TAKES WITNESS STAND

Accused Murderer Will Testify In Own Behalf; Claimed To Be One of Gunmen

Cincinnati, Mar. 29.—Breck Lutes, 28, who is accused of the first-degree murder of Peter Dumlee, night marshal of the village of North College Hill, is expected to take the stand in his own defense in Judge Thomas H. Darby's court here this afternoon.

Lutes is alleged to have been one of a half dozen men who, with revolvers and sawed-off shotguns, fired a volley into the officer's body when he entered the Pelican Club poolroom in the village while the men were holding up the place.
Dumlee was fatally wounded.

The hold-up occurred last Easter Sunday morning. Rodney Ford, one of the participating gang, was convicted for his part in the fatal shooting and is now in death row at the Ohio penitentiary in Columbus, awaiting electrocution.

Audience Pleased With Presentation

To an audience that filled the High school auditorium to its capacity, grade pupils of Salem public schools gave their second presentation of the operetta, "The Pixies Triumph" Thursday night.
This entertainment under the direction of Miss Grace P. Orr, instructor of music in the school, is a credit to Miss Orr, her assistants, and the children alike.

The chorus work by the different grades was especially good and in the butterfly song and the robins song the costumes were very attractive.

Mrs. A. W. Stoner was the accompanied for the operetta, and Walter Regal directed the High school orchestra, which entertained between acts.

Easter Comes On March 31 But Once Again Before 2002

Moon Said To Play Part In Setting Date For Observance of Day; Superstition Said
Sun Danced On Easter Sunday

Easter Sunday will fall on March 31 only once again between 1929 and 2002 A. D. according to those who have made a study of interesting customs. Easter will fall on March 30 three times during those years.

The date of Easter is set by the council of Nice in 325 A. D. under the Emperor Constantine. Christians of the Eastern church held that the day should be that of the Jewish Passover, and those of the Western church placed it on the Sabbath following, as Christ's resurrection took place on a Sabbath.
The dispute was settled by council.

The rule for fixing the date of Easter follows: March 21 shall be accounted the vernal equinox. The 14th day of the moon occurring on or after the spring equinox, shall be taken for the full moon of Nisan.
The date of the Passover, the Lord's day next following that full moon, shall be Easter day. If the full moon occurs on a Sabbath, Easter shall be the following Sunday.

A popular superstition for many years was that the sun danced on Easter day, these students of the calendar say.

Easter eggs were chosen as symbolic of the recreation of spring.

PINT-LIFE LAW VIRTUALLY DEAD

Michigan's Fourth Time Dry Offenders Not To Face Penalty

Lansing, Mich., Mar. 29.—Michigan's "life-for-a-pint" law which heretofore has thrown fear into the hearts of four offenders of the prohibition law today is virtually dead.

The pen signature of Gov. Fred W. Green on the Watson bill is all that is needed to strike prohibition violators along with 200 other crimes from the list for which fourth offenders in the past were liable to life imprisonment.

With the signing of the Watson bill, fourth offenders can be sentenced only from seven and one-half to 15 years.

The Watson bill—bitterly fought by the Michigan Anti-Saloon League headed by R. N. Hosiely, its superintendent—swept with ease to a 39 to 9 victory in the state senate.
There was not a word of discussion and wets and dries alike joined in throwing a unanimous vote.

Stimson Assumes Office With Delicate Situation To Handle Over Sinking Of Rum Runner

British, Canadian and French Governments Protest Action of United States Coast Guard In Firing
On Schooner; Question Legality of Chase

Washington, Mar. 29.—Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson assumed office today confronted with one of the most internationally acute
"incidents" yet to grow out of prohibition enforcement.

He faces three nations, Great Britain, France and Canada, who with a united front, will make a drive with international law as their weapon, to settle definitely the scope of authority of the American government on the high seas in enforcing domestic laws.

The sinking of the "Im Alone," Canadian rum runner, and the killing of a French member of the crew, by the coast guard cutter Dexter, under command of Boatswain Frank Paul, a week ago today in the Gulf of Mexico, has brought down on the treasury department's chief prohibition agent, the coast guard, the indignation of the public of England and Canada and France, and has caused the state department considerable disquietude.

The controversy threatens to tear down two treaties affecting the British Empire and Canada. The first is the anti-smuggling treaty, and the other the border treaty Canada signed with the United States with reference to land rum smuggling.

Stimson finds two departments approaching the problem from different angles, the treasury utilizing the American tariff act for its authority to hotly pursue suspected rum runners from any point within 12 miles of the American coast.
The state department apparently depending on the anti-rum smuggling treaty with Great Britain to justify the sinking on the ground that the territorial limits of the United States are extended one hour's steaming distance for prohibition enforcement purposes.

From the British and Canadian viewpoint, it doesn't matter where the pursuit started if it was beyond the three-mile limit established by international law.

CALLAHAN MINE FIRE CONQUERED, INSPECTORS SAY

Blaze Has Ravaged Mine
For Five Months;
Water Used

FIGHTERS LIVES
WERE ENDANGERED

Creek Waters Turned into Slope; Rates As Worst Fire

The fire, which for almost three months has been ravaging the Homer Callahan Mining company mine five miles south of this city, on the Salem-Lisbon rd., was today reported to have finally gone out.

Water, turned into the mine from a stream running adjacent to the mine extinguished the conflagration, according to the report of Thomas G. Reese, state mining inspector. Reese today made entrance into the section of the mine hit by fire and stated indications were that the blaze was completely extinguished.

Efforts to battle the fire had been made on three occasions by Homer Callahan, Washingtonville rd., owner of the mine, assisted by state inspector and employees, but each time they were forced to abandon the fight.

The mine was sealed twice, the first time after the air course, ventilating the mine, caved in, imperiling the lives of the fire-fighters.

Fire Ranks As Worst
The fire is said to be the worst ever occurring in this section of Ohio. Its cause may never be determined, as the flames originated approximately 800 feet from the entrance, and burned the mine for several hundred feet.

According to Reese, spontaneous combustion could hardly have been the cause, due to excellent ventilation under normal conditions.

A line of hose ejecting a stream of water at 65 pounds pressure was used on the fire for days following the discovery of the conflagration, but the cave in of the air course, Jan. 6, forced firemen to abandon hopes for extinguishing it by human efforts.

Further inspections will be made to ascertain whether the fire is completely out, for there are possibilities that it may be smoldering in certain sections not accessible to the investigators, and would start up with renewed force if the water were pumped out.

As soon as it is assured to be extinguished, the water will be drawn from the mine and preparations be made to put it in operation again within the next few months.

RUTH LIVERMORE GETS NEW TRIAL

School Teacher Who Was Convicted
On Burglary Charge and Given Life Sentence Has Chance

Youngstown, March 29.—Ruth Livermore, 22-year-old school teacher, serving a life sentence at Marysville reformatory for alleged participation in a burglary committed by her husband, today was granted a new trial by the court of appeals.

Her conviction, her attorneys says was the result of a misapprehension which led her to plead guilty.
Judge David H. Thomas, of Marietta, sentenced her to life imprisonment under an Ohio law which permits this penalty for bur-glarizing an inhabited dwelling. He refused her motion to withdraw the plea and stand trial on a charge of burglary for which she was indicted.

Her attorneys contend that Mrs.
Livermore sat in an automobile, a half mile from the scene, while her husband, Lester, burglarized a house where he had been employed as caretaker. He is serving a life sentence in Ohio penitentiary.

ATHLETE HURT

Rish, 17, senior in Kenton High school, is in a serious condition in Antonio hospital here today as a result of being struck on the side of the face with a discus, hurled by Eugene McNeill, during a track meet with Bell Center High school.
Four teeth were knocked out by accident, and Rish lost considerable blood in addition to being badly bruised.

NEW WATERFORD MAN ARRESTED BY DRY RAIDERS

Two Other Places Are Searched During Activities

SHERIFF LENDS AID TO STATE OFFICIALS

Liquor Found In Barber
Shop; Claim Evidence
Destroyed

Grant Sloan, proprietor of a barber shop and beauty parlor in New Waterford, was arrested by Sheriff
W. J. Barlow, deputies and state prohibition officers during a raid on his place of business Thursday afternoon. Sloan is charged with possession.

A small quantity of alleged whiskey, bottles, cans and funnels were found during the raid, officers stated.

Sloan was arraigned before Probation Judge Lodge Riddle and entered a plea of not guilty. Bond was set at $500. He will face trial on April 3.

Two other raids were conducted by the officers without finding evidence to support an arrest. Houses in Unity township and one in New Waterford were visited.

Evidence had been destroyed in one instance, Sheriff Barlow stated.
R. V. Schaeffer and George Stevens, state prohibition operatives arrived in Lisbon Thursday and solited aid of Sheriff Barlow. The sheriff immediately locked up the offices and accompanied by Deputies Harroff, Elliott and Lewis assisted the state men on the raids.

DISCOVER PLOT AGAINST CALLES

Former President's Life
Endangered By Rebel
Assassins

Mexico City, March 29.—A plot has been discovered against the life of Gen. Plutarco Elias Calles, Mexican Minister of War, former president of the republic and commander in chief of the Federal armies in the field, according to reports from the border today.

From information received here it was indicated that Gen. J. Gonzalez Escobar, commander of the Rebels in the state of Chihuahua, engineered the assassination conspiracy. It was reported that information had been obtained indicating that the Rebel leader plotted with paid agents at Torreon to kill the Federal chieftain either in Torreon or in the field.

After the occupation of Torreon by the rebels Gen. Calles established his headquarters there.

CHINESE REBELS BECOME ACTIVE

Troops Clash In Several Sectors Is Late Report; Government
Forcing Issue

Shanghai, Mar. 29.—Fighting between insurgent factions and nationalist troops was reported from several zones today.

According to word from Nanking, President Chiang Kai Shek will immediately take the field in person to put down the rebels.

The nationalists defeated the rebels in a battle on the Hupeh-Anhui border.

The nationalists that evacuated Chefoo in Shantung, allowing the northerners to occupy the city, are said to be reforming and preparing for a counter attack.

Nationalist troops are preparing for a campaign against the rebels in Fukien and Kwangsi.

WHOSE FAULT?

England and America, considering the problem of the sinking of a British run-rumming ship by an American coast guard cutter, face the prospect of a serious tiff. The English ship, "Im Alone," was run-rumming; the skipper admits it. It was owned by British interests which have been in the run-rumming business before, in all likelihood. American authorities, headed by none other than Andrew Mellon, supervising head of the coast guard service, maintain that the pursuit of the ship started within the 12-mile limit. That point will be contested by the British and Canadian governments. The ship was sunk after it refused an order to heave to by a patrol boat.

The issue will be decided on a point of international law. The American viewpoint is that pursuit, which starts within the 12-mile limit, is justified. The British viewpoint is that pursuit must start within the three-mile limit.

There is another issue at stake, other than the technicality of determining the point where the chase started. It is the issue that started when Cain refused to accept the responsibility for his brother's welfare. Is the attitude of the British and Canadian governments justified?

Canadian and British interest have consistently aided American liquor smuggling interests. It has not been governmental aid, but has come from the same class of people that are balking prohibition enforcement in the United States—the class that puts money ahead of principle. Government is not powerful enough to control individuals and individuals have taken advantage of the proximities of the Canadian border and the Atlantic seaboard to line their pockets with bootleg gold.

America is in the midst of a vast social experiment. The worth of the experiment has been demonstrated to be great in terms of dollars and cents, but is still faltering on the advisability of individual restriction. American citizens, as a group, have not shown themselves willing to give the scheme a fair trial. It is not to be wondered at, then, that outsiders should show little respect for the issue.

Canada, especially, is in an irritated state of mind over the St. Lawrence waterway and the report of the United States federal radio commission. It will be wise to proceed with caution and wire consideration in the investigation of the sinking of the British run-rumming ship. This country is in no condition to wrap its cloak about its holiness and spurn its neighbors.

What Others Say

TRIUMPH OF MEAT EATERS

Considered from the standpoint of dietetics, the removal of William Childs and the Childs family from the control of the nation-wide system of restaurants that bear that name is a most remarkable business episode.

Mr. Childs was, and probably still is, a vegetarian. But it is now quite evident that he miscalculated when he tried to make vegetarians of his patrons. They could not be made to "go vegetable-wise." For some years this little health hint appeared frequently on the menus supplied by him. His assistants dug into the dusty records of history and took out the names of great men who were vegetarians, and these bits of historical research, together with eulogies of carrots, cabbages, spinach and other garden products, were also placed before the eyes of the eating public. His restaurants, if not utterly meatless, were nearly so.

But now Mr. Childs, as it were, has gone vegetable-wise. He is a martyr to the cause of vegetarianism. His great vegetarian crusade has ended in disastrous failure, for he has not only failed to reform the eating habits of the public, but he has lost control of the company. This proves conclusively that, whatever may be the merits of a purely vegetarian diet, the American people are a nation of meat-eaters. They may not know as much about such things as vitamins and calories as they should in the interests of health, but they know what they like, and they like meat. Any great restaurant system that wishes to hold its customers should not neglect juicy steaks, roasts and pork chops and creamy gravy. Such dietetic atrocities as "meatless roast turkey" will find no favor among the masses.

CONGRESS WORKS ON FARM RELIEF

Big Business, President Refuse to Take Part In Activities

Washington, March 29.—Unaided either by the White House or "big business," the senate and house agriculture committees were struggling today with the "white elephant" of congress—a new farm relief bill.

The congressional committees faced a different task due to the apparent lack of interest on the part of "big business" in the decision of President Hoover not to interfere with the drafting of agricultural legislation and the wide disagreement revealed among spokesmen for farm organizations over the method of relief required.

A bill, devoid of the equalization fee but carrying specific provision for government aid in handling surplus crops, undoubtedly will be drawn at both ends of the capital.

Spokesmen for the farm organizations revealed that even the farmers themselves are not in accord over the proposed legislation.

Higher tariffs, easier credits and farmer control of the Federal Land Bank system were three changes upon which the farmers agreed.

They quarreled, however, over the equalization fee, the proposed farmers' stabilization corporation and the plan to lend government funds to cooperative associations all over the country.

BOY RETURNED TO LANCASTER

Ohio Youth Breaks Parole From Industrial School By Robbing Store

Circleville, O., March 29.—After being at liberty under a suspended sentence from the Boys' Industrial School at Lancaster, Benjamin Haddox, 17-year-old youth of this city, was once more headed for that institution today.

Young Haddox confessed this morning, when he was arraigned before Mayor B. T. Hedges, to the robbery of a store and, as a result, was remanded to the Lancaster school for an indeterminate term.

Bauknecht Named New Administrator

Lisbon, March 29.—In probate court John E. Bauknecht has been made administrator of the estate of Edwin C. McGraw, because of the removal of John Morgan on an order of the court.

A guardian's petition to sell real estate has been filed by Ella Benner, guardian of Arthur Benner against James H. Benner and others.

Proceedings to sell real estate have been filed by Anna M. Condon, administratrix of the estate of Nicholas G. Condon against George Condon, a minor and the Perpetual Savings and Loan company.

Appropriation of private property is sought in a proceeding filed by the New Waterford board of education against Eva A. Johnson and Joseph O. Johnson. This matter will be heard by a jury.

Dry Battle Looms Over Missouri Issue

Jefferson City, Mo., Mar. 29.—A hot fight in the Missouri legislature loomed today over introduction of a measure to repeal the state's drastic dry law.

Representative William H. Lafferty of Kansas City introduced the bill and asserted: "If the legislature votes as it drinks, there is victory ahead."

CHEMISTS SEEK COAL IN WALES

Secret Experiments May Lead To New Product; May Revolutionize Fuel Industry

Cardiff, Wales, March 28.—To obtain wealth from waste coal, remarkable secret experiments are being conducted in a lonely spot in South Wales. Should they be successful, the anthracite industry will be revolutionized and probably the future of the mining world.

The problem is to find a means to separate the small coal or "duff" from the dirt. This small coal has been a drug on the market and the fact that it is a waste product has added to the general cost of production.

In a hidden corner of the hills between Neath and Brecon, chemists and engineers have, on behalf of a big combine in South Wales, been trying to solve the difficulty.

To inspire secrecy all connected with the work have to give a guarantee of silence and are also warned that no stranger is to be allowed near the work.

Not only have the experiments been extraordinarily successful up to date, but the coal is graded into sizes varying from grains to "flour" so fine that it cannot be loaded into trucks.

All these sizes have a commercial value equal to that of the largest coal. The "flour" will probably be mixed with heavy oil and used for heating.

JURY FINDS MAN GUILTY IN CASE

Alleged Bank Robber Awaiting To Hear Sentence; Witnesses Say He Took Part

Defiance, O., Mar. 29.—Joseph Kowalski, 32, today faces sentence for participation in the $9,000 robbery of the National Bank of Hicksville, near here, a month ago.

Seven men and five women composed the jury which returned a guilty verdict against him after a deliberation of more than three hours last night.

Kowalski claimed to have been at his home in Muncie, Ind., at the time of the robbery, but the testimony of Laverne Stevens, Bernard Maynard and Melvin Hallerman, who pleaded guilty to the robbery and who declared Kowalski participated with them in the crime, convicted the Indiana man.

It is expected that the four bank robbers will be sentenced by Judge Fred L. Day, Saturday.

"FRIENDS LAUGHED WHEN I STARTED TO TAKE KONJOLA"

"But In A Few Weeks The Laugh Was On Them," Says Lady Fred From Rheumatism

MRS. MANNING FASSETT

"My friends told me that Konjola would not do me any good," said Mrs. Manning Fassett, Route No. 1, Ashland, Ohio, "although they admitted they did not know anything about this new medicine. I had been troubled with rheumatism all over my body, and my arms and feet were badly swollen. I would not be able to walk for two hours after arising in the morning. At times the pains were almost unbearable, and I could hardly stand. I was unable to get any relief, although I had tried many different remedies and treatments."

"The laugh is now on my friends. The first week of treatment with this new medicine proved to me that I had at last found the right treatment. Gradually the pains became less and less, and when the sixth bottle was finished, I was entirely rid of the terrible rheumatism that had distressed me for years. The friends who ridiculed Konjola now praise it, after seeing what it has done for me."

Konjola is sold in Salem at J. H. Lease drug stores and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—Adv.

MYSTERY MAN SEARCH ENTERS RAID SLAYING

Affidavit Which Started Circumstances Bears His Name

Aurora, Ill., March 29. — Search for the mysterious "Boyd Fairchild," whose affidavit of alleged purchase of a pint of wine started the chain of circumstances which ended in the killing of Mrs. Lillian DeKing in her home here, today became the center of activity in the investigation.

"Fairchild," according to a statement by Assistant State's Atty. Carleton Schultz, is the "undercover man" who obtained the original information against the DeKings.

Search, by attorneys for the DeKing family, has failed to show any "Boyd Fairchild" on a payroll of the state's attorney's office as an investigator or in any other capacity. An attaché of that office, carried on the Kane county payroll as "chief investigator," told DeKing attorneys that there was no such person as "Fairchild."

Attorney to Investigate

"If the information upon which a 'John Doe' search warrant was issued to go into the home on the raid which ended in the murder of Mrs. DeKing was not authentic," Atty. Robert A. Milroy, representing the family, said today, "I seriously believe a charge of conspiracy to commit murder may be made to stand. Legally, I am just looking into that phase of the question today."

"I am certain, too, that with Atty. General Oscar Carlstrom at the request when it opens here Tuesday, we will be able to produce evidence that will startle the state, if not the nation."

Deputy Sheriff Roy Smith, who

About Guilford Lake

Editor News: I doubt we all read with interest the article about the Guilford lake project. The state took over the lake for this project, we heard it and many times that the city of Youngstown was strongly opposing the enterprise. Now amongst the gentlemen whom we were down at the lake site for inspection was Mr. Roberts from Youngstown and by reading The News we find that Mr. Roberts seems to have the most objections against our lake and park and he has started this thing. I think the reason for this statement we can all understand, as we all should know, that as soon as the Guilford project is completed, the city of Youngstown will get less revenue out of Pine lake. Mr. Roberts states that it would be more economy to spend more than $10,000 at the park at this time. We think him wrong in this. For example, if a man built a house as an investment, the sooner he can complete the job the sooner he will get the benefit out of it. So it is with this project the same. The sooner the lake is completed and opened with fish, the sooner the state will benefit. Now knowing that this job is going to be finished some time anyway, and that the state is going to furnish the money, we can see no reason why it should not be done right along and have it over with. That is what we would call economy. We see no sense in dragging this thing along any longer, as it has been long enough as it is. Mr. Roberts also said that he and his committee are out to save the taxpayers money and at the same time they are talking about setting aside $25,000 for our governor and his party to go to France next September. Who is paying this? Will Mr. Roberts and his committee give that amount as a present to our governor, or is it Mr. Taxpayer? I think it is the latter.

We respect Mr. Roberts and also thank him for his good intentions about economy, but if we have to be economical why not try it all around? By completing our lake in a hurry the state will furnish pleasure to thousands of people, whereas by giving our governor $25,000 it will benefit a few. Of course we know when those gentlemen hung up in a mud puddle that this did not improve their opinion. We all know that wading around a machine in a mud hole does improve one's appetite, but how it does spoil one's good humor. I don't blame them for cursing the county commissioners and believe me, they are not the only ones who are doing it either. There is no getting away with the fact that the road leading through and to Guilford is a fright. Last Sunday there was a funeral from Salem to Woodsdale cemetery, from Salem to Winona is brick pavement. One way street, such as it is, for believe me it is hard on one's stomach if you happen to drive over it right after dinner, but still it is better than mud. From Winona to the grave yard there are places where one machine had to push and pull the other, and I think any one who has any respect for the dead will call this a disgrace. A couple of years ago our legislature enacted a law whereby all roads leading to a cemetery should be improved. Maybe it is getting done some places, but certainly not out our way. We voted money for good roads, but as far as I can see, not one cent has been spent from all that money where we live. There is also a bridge which is rotten and not safe for a team to travel on. Our commissioners and trustees know it, too, but do not fix it. Maybe they also are wanting to be economical until some farmers horse goes through again, and then it will cost double. Just like it is with the park, the longer it takes to do the job, the more it will cost. Let us hope that all these gentlemen will look at this thing in a different way before they act. We would like to have the lake completed, and also like to have better roads.

Loughran Retains Light Heavyweight Title In Chicago Bout

Champ Too Clever For Challenger

Walker Outboxed through Scrap; Neither In Bad Shape

BY GENE HOFFMAN

Chicago, March 29.—Caesar was ambitious and Brutus "cut him down." Napoleon was going great until his ambition for higher titles led him into a match with Wellington.

Just how these eminent gentlemen felt may be learned first hand today from Mickey Walker, well-named "toy" bulldog, and his challenger, Jack Kearns, although it is a well known fact that neither Caesar nor Bonaparte received $50,000 in any kind of money to appease them for mugging their greatest "shot."

Walker, present middleweight champion and former welterweight title holder, aspiring to the light heavyweight crown of Tommy Loughran, was "put back in his place" last night by the Philadelphia champion in a way that indicated Walker will be no serious threat to the light heavy division as it is dominated by a man known as Loughran.

Wins By Decision
Tommy retained his title by decision at the end of ten rounds. He was favored by both judges, which made Referee Dave Miller's vote unnecessary for a verdict. Despite the dissenting opinions of several ringside experts, most of them from out of town, the verdict was a popular one.

The bout was the main event on the opening card of Paddy Harmon's mammoth west side stadium. The structure, when final touches have been applied, will seat 25,000 and will have cost approximately $7,000,000 to build. Upwards of 20,000 fans turned out for last night's opening.

Both the new stadium and the huge crowd were well initiated when fire broke out in scaffolding close to the roof. Firemen quietly conquered the blaze and the first inking the large crowd had of the incident was when water began streaming down on main floor customers. There was a flurry of excitement as they vacated seats, but nothing approaching a panic, such as occurred in the old Coliseum last Monday night.

The main event between Loughran and the ambitious middleweight who would take his crown, was disappointing to many who expected a knock-down and drag-out affair. It was anything but that—not because Walker didn't try hard enough—but because Loughran, with a valuable title at stake, was naturally on the defensive and satisfied to pile up points while skillfully warding off the wild rushes of the slugger.

Tommy was at no time in real distress. The same may be said of Walker, but Loughran kept jabbing left in Mickey's face and time after time he crossed over a hard right to the head. Tommy is no man killed, but as a master boxer and ring strategist he has few if any equals. Mickey made himself ridiculous the few times he tried to box with the champion.

The challenger's best rounds were in the middle of the fight, from the fourth to the sixth inclusive. Tommy shaded him in the first three, but from the sixth on, after Walker had unleashed his lightning and failed, it was Loughran by a mile. The champion's best round was the eighth when he connected with his right cross at will. If Tommy had a real punch, Walker would have gone out in this stanza.

Tuffy Griffiths, of Sioux City and Chicago, and Leo Lamski, the Aberdeen "assassin," put up the most entertaining fight on the card. They staged the ten round semi-windup and Griffiths carried off the decision. They weighed in at 174 each. The winner had been promised a championship bout with the winner of the Walker-Loughran battle.

team tying it up with 10 hits and two errors each. The Hendricks boys scored one run in each of the third and fourth innings, but broke loose and ran up the total after the Canadians had made a three run rally in the first half of the eighth frame.

Plant City, Fla.—Columbus Senators made it two straight by winning from Rochester of the International League here yesterday, 6 to 4. It was a listless battle, but despite this fact, there was some individual starring. Jalenowski pitched a good game, and was relieved by Miller in the seventh.

"MARQUIS PREFERRED"

Rich comedy fare is provided Salem theater goes in "Marquis Preferred," the new Adolph Menjou picture, which is at the State tonight and Saturday.

The story is one of those smart, laughable mixups which Menjou does so well. It concerns a bankrupt nobleman who, at the instigation of his tailor, incorporates for the purpose of building up his financial standing, a money marriage.

While his three comical partners, the tailor, valet, and chef, scour the city for a girl possessing the desired dowry, Menjou is falling in love with a pretty governess. She discovers his plot, scorns Menjou and he is forced to go through with the bargain made with his partners, by wedding a rich spinster.

He leaves her immediately after the ceremony, sets out to gain his fortune, and through a series of pathetic and humorous circumstances comes out happily married to the original loved one.

Chester Conklin, Dot Farley and the attractive Nora Lane provide their share of the featured entertainment.

"CHEYENNE"

Realism in every sense of the word is the basis of First National's thrilling Western feature, "Cheyenne," now showing at the Grand theater. This feature, starring Ken Maynard, the dare-devil rider of the saddle, is a story of the round up and rodeos, and was taken at the regular Cheyenne, (Wyo.) open air show.

The entire rodeo is shown upon the screen with Ken entered in all the principal events and displaying more stunts and riding skill than ever before.

"Cheyenne" is not only another Maynard but the very essence of thrilling dramatic action coupled with a smooth running action story. For laughs, thrills, action and story "Cheyenne" has all previous pictures of its type shaded.

A fine cast has been selected to

"THE NIGHT BIRD"

New York's wildest party, the annual Beaux Arts—has been immortalized in Reginald Denny's new cinema production of extraordinary high calibre, "The Night Bird," billed at the Royal tonight and tomorrow.

A galaxy of feminine pulchritude appear as dancers in the vehicle and are carded as the select of Hollywood's screen players and those of the Los Angeles stage.

One of the features of the show is a delightfully well portrayed boxing exhibition. It is one of those rip-roaring slugfests that is the delight of all fans, and in direct line with the usual Denny narrative.

The story is about a fighter and his private life, and how his manager insists that he indulge in few night excursions, which is all against Denny's wishes.

THE HOME KITCHEN

By Jeannette Young Norton

Teat—Prepared as You Will Like It

The women standing next to me at the grocer's counter shoved her finger gently over the wax-paper covering the loaf of bread. It left an indentation, but she wasn't quite satisfied. "Is it today's bread?" she said dubiously. The grocer hastened to say, "No. That's yesterday's I expect the bakery man here any minute now. He's late with today's bread." "Oh, then I'll come back later."

This passion for freshly-baked bread is one of the strangest of our food habits. Fresh bread is hard to handle; it cuts badly, it is pasty to the taste—apart from the fact that it is most unwholesome. Fresh bread causes gas formation, it retards digestion because it does not induce saliva while chewing. In fact, we have a natural reaction against fresh bread to such an extent that almost everybody toasts it—yes, even the sandwich shops. We demand soft bread, insist on it fresh from the oven—and then proceed to make it crusty, because that's really the way we like it. Why do we not willingly buy good bread one or two days old, bread that is wholesomely stale, remains therefore another food for mystery.

Everyone who lives for a while where the French bread is made, readily acquires a taste for their delightful long loaves, so well baked that there is little pasty crumb, but a great deal of crust. We get this delicious crusty flavor by toasting our bread, which is in its fresh state almost entirely crumb. There are preferences, however, as to the texture of toast. Some like it quite soft, others enjoy it when it is almost a cracker consistency. This latter, brittle kind of toast, somehow has a better flavor than the soft variety. It can be made on either a toaster or baked in the oven, thus:

Crispy Toast—Cut bread into slices not more than one-quarter inch thick. Some like the crumbs trimmed off, so that the whole slice when toasted has an even texture. Others prefer the crust left on. Place as many slices as you need for a complete service in the oven below the broiler. When light brown on one side, turn over and brown the other.

This takes several minutes—more time than is required if you use a gas or electric toaster, and the bread will be as crisp and brittle as a cracker.

If you don't like it quite that hard, any good gas or electric toaster will brown it nicely in less time.

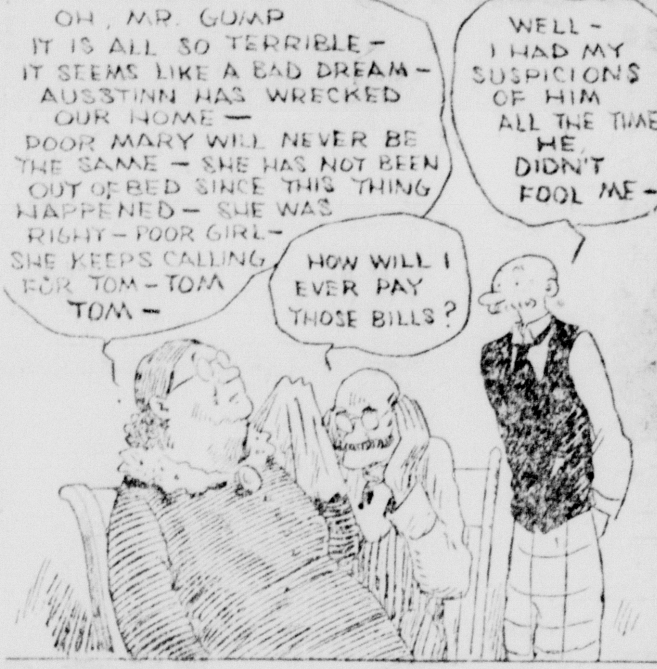

For softer toast, cut the bread thicker—almost one-half inch, and toast over a quick heat, either gas or electric. Old-fashioned cooks still sing the glories of toast over a clear coal fire, and it is good though rather laborious—too much so for our modern housekeepers who have neither the time nor the inclination to spend half an hour making toast for breakfast.

Have a hot plate ready, with a large napkin, and place the toast in this immediately when ready, and always serve at once.

A toast rack is helpful, but it must be covered with a linen napkin. A metal cover is less desirable, because the heat is rising from the hot toast may form bits of moisture, then descending on the toast again, with depressing consequences.

A light truck has been invented that enables a man to pick up and move oil drums without spilling their contents if their upper ends are open.

WOMAN LOCATES MYSTERY MINE

Lost Robinson Mine In Idaho Discovered After Search Covering 29 Years

Oakland, Cal., March 28.—Dark, foreboding mystery which for more than 29 years had hung like a spectral shroud about the famous Lost Robinson mine in Idaho may soon be cleared by a woman's hand. Discovered a quarter of a century ago by a prospector, Robinson, who died of a fever without revealing its whereabouts, the mine has lured scores of fortune seekers to futile search.

Indians of the hill country have surrounded it with a halo of romance, superstition and death. Tales of a ghost guarding the secret shaft have traveled far and wide. Two men are known to have come to their death when almost on the point of finding the mine.

But two Oakland girls, Tillie and Hanna Kalke, beauty parlor operators, guided by a crude map delivered into their hands by a queer coincidence of fate, recently claim to have discovered the hidden shaft of the supposed fabulously rich diggings.

Defying the spell of death which has relentlessly trailed those who sought to re-discover the mine, the two intrepid women last year packed into the fringe of the Idaho mountains. Five weeks later they came out with their secret—and tales of pure gold, of a lode of quartz bulging with nuggets.

The sisters are back at work in Oakland earning money to develop the mine.

VESTLESS SUIT SPRING FASHION

Russian Haberdashers Discard Vest As Useless Garment For Men; Economy Reason

Moscow, March 29.—The proletarian spring fashion for men is the vestless suit. Unless someone advances an unbeatable argument proving that the waistcoat is a necessary and useful article, the fashion will become permanent.

The reason for the innovation is economy. Some rare brain on the workers' committee of the Traniakov clothing factory in Moscow, which as the largest in Russia turns out 40,000 suits a year, figured out that the material used in making waist coats, would make 10,154 additional two-piece suits annually, and reduce manufacturing costs.

Moscow.—The amount of vodka necessary to kill a man has at last been determined. It is two bottles, or about one and a half quarts.

Annapolis, Md.—A bill has been favorably reported to the House of Delegates appropriating $2,500,000 for a state airport.

St. Paul.—An ardent wish of State Senator L. P. Johnson is barber shops for men only. He asked that women be compelled to get their hair cut in hair dressers establishments. But his colleagues up and forbade the very thing he wanted made mandatory.

BIG TELESCOPE MAY DISCLOSE STARRY SECRET

Greatest Aid to Human Eye Will Be On Mountain

Washington, March 29. — The long-standing question of the habitation of Mars may be definitely settled with the erection in California or northern Arizona of a telescope so powerful that it could bring to view a candle 41,000 miles away, and so large it will dwarf the great 100-inch Mt. Wilson telescope.

The funds for this remarkable instrument have been provided by the International Education Board as a gift to the California Institute of Technology. A suitable site is now being sought.

The telescope, a reflector type, will be 17 feet in diameter and will take several years to construct. The mirror will be a great disk of fused quartz, a material new to such use. It was chosen because of its indifference to changing temperatures in which the Mt. Wilson telescope is highly sensitive.

Built On Site
Because of the great difficulties incident to getting the completed disk to the top of a mountain, shops and laboratories will be built on the site chosen and the disk cast there. Prominent physicists, chemists, engineers and meteorologists will be called in to help in the manufacture.

Completed and set up, it will bring into range of the human eye stars of the twenty-fifth magnitude, three magnitudes beyond the greatest magnitude of even the Mt. Wilson instrument, according to Dr. W. S. Adams, director of the Mt. Wilson observatory.

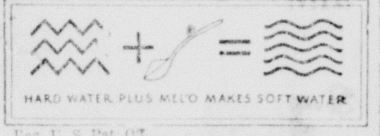

It will quadruple the visible limits of the universe, extending them to the range of 400,000,000 light years, and will have 1,000,000 times the light gathering power of the human eye.

May Discover Stars
Through it meteorologists will be able to see countless stars and constellations as yet undiscovered, and

Wash clothes in water softened with Melo—save 1/3 to 1/2 the usual amount of soap

Clothes washed in hard water are hard to get clean. The hardness in the water combines with the soap and makes scum. The scum collects dirt. It gets into the fabric of the clothes. No amount of rinsing can get it all out.

But soften hard water with Melo and there isn't any scum. The water makes wonderful suds. Melo saves from 1/3 to 1/2 the amount of soap ordinarily used. With or without soap, water softened with Melo is a wonderful cleaner. Get it at your grocer's.

to add inestimably to their store of knowledge about the design of the universe. Entirely new fields and new astral theories evolved.

The great glass will bring the surface of Mars much closer and perhaps will be the means of penetrating the mystery which surrounds the "canals" which are visible on that planet through lesser telescopes. It is also expected to add to the knowledge of weather conditions here. The secrets of other worlds, including Jupiter and the moon, also will be wrested from them.

Harvard Law Class To Study Plan To Reduce Crime Waves

Cambridge, Mass., March 29.—How to fit punishment to the criminal, not to the crime, the problem of how to determine guilt, and what to do with those found guilty, will be the subjects of investigation by the newly formed Institute of Criminal Law at the Harvard University Law School, organized under the supervision of Professor Francis Bowers Sayre.

The founders of this new institute view present methods of dealing with criminals as insufficient, because lawyers have too long bent all their attentions upon convicting criminals, and too little upon the individual criminal and his treatment.

Professor Sayre will be aided in the management of the Institute by Sheldon Glueck, assistant professor of Criminology at Harvard beginning next year, and author of "Mental Disorders and the Criminal Law." Sam Bass Warner, at present professor of law at Syracuse University, who next year will become assistant professor of penal legislation and administration at Harvard; and assistant Professor John Joseph Burns of the Harvard Law School, who has been giving courses in first-year criminal law in collaboration with Professor Sayre.

Advisory Committee
The Institute will have as an advisory committee, Dean Roscoe Pound, Professor Joseph H. Beale and Professor Felix Frankfurter of the Harvard Law School.

Activities of the Institute will begin next fall as part of the Harvard Law school work, and research projects will be carried out under the supervision of the four members of the institute with the aid of graduate students and visiting research professors.

Professor Sayre declared the object of the school would be the enlargement of the approach to the problem of crime from a mere study of the law in books to a study of what practically can be done to affect the conduct of human beings who menace social interests. There are, in his estimation, two problems in connection with the administration of criminal justice—guilt finding, namely the conviction of those who fall short of social standards; and the treatment of those individuals who are convicted.

To Reduce Crime
The experience of society has shown, he pointed out, that mere punishment of the prisoner does not yield adequate results in reducing crime. The problem is one of human conduct. Psychiatrists, social workers, and physicians must be called into consultation and the efforts of different experts coordinated.

In the past lawyers have been ever fond of studying the outlines of crime. It is increasingly realized that the punishment must be fitted not so much to the crime, but to the criminal. This individualization of treatment means the expanding of the problem and the calling of the other experts, Professor Sayre said.

Paris—Gallant is Raymond Poincaré, premier of France. The daughter of Leo Tolstoy sent him a notice that her home would be sold for non-payment of taxes. He returned the notice received.

GERMAN WEALTH SHOWS DECREASE

War and Inflation Causes Great Decrease in Millionaires, Tax List Proves

Berlin, March 29.—War and inflation have wrought havoc among German millionaires.

The number of individual persons possessing more than one million marks ($25,000) has dropped from 15,547 before the war to 2,335 at the present time. Only 33 of these persons possess more than ten million marks, against 229 before the war.

German wealth subject to taxation before the war totaled 157,100,000,000 marks. Now it totals only 97,800,000,000 marks, despite the depreciation of money through-out the world.

BERLIN RANKS THIRD IN SIZE

London and New York Only Cities With Larger Population Than
German Metropolis

Berlin, March 29.—The population of Berlin on December 31, 1928 numbered 4,297,160, thereby easily maintaining Berlin's place as the third biggest city in the world.

Only London and New York have larger populations.

But Berlin grows only because it draws on the country. Despite an increasing number of marriages since the war, the number of births were still more than six thousand below the number of deaths.

On the other hand, those that are born have a better chance to live, for infant mortality dropped by 7.7 per cent during the last year.

Two New Divorce Cases Filed In Court

Lisbon, March 29.—Adultery is charged in the divorce petition filed in common pleas court by Laura Lisk, through her counsel Brookes & Thompson of East Liverpool, against her husband George Lisk. The couple were married at Lisbon Aug. 16, 1913. The plaintiff charges that the defendant violated his marriage obligation at Cambridge, O., also in Columbiana county, and other places.

Esther Wyand married Allen Wyand, March 15, 1928, at Lisbon and now seeks a divorce, her petition having been filed by E. P. Speidel of Alliance and charges the defendant with gross neglect of duty. Wyand lives on East Ohio ave., Sebring. Wyand only lived with his wife two weeks.

Admitted to Probate
Judge W. L. Limes has admitted to probate the will in the matter of the estate of Leonard Stockman, deceased. This entry for probate court had to be made by the court above on account of Judge Lodge Riddle being a witness to the will before he took office.

Proceedings Dismissed
Foreclosure proceedings recently filed by the Union Savings and Loan company against Fred Grum, and others has been dismissed by the plaintiff at its costs, with no further record following.

Judgment by Confession

Judgment by confession for $175 and costs in favor of the plaintiff has been entered in the case of William Clapendille against Paul Hantbert and S. C. Rauch. The action was based on a cognovit note.

I HAD TO FORCE MYSELF TO WORK

But I Had Renewed Energy, Fine Appetite and Sound
Sleep After Taking Owa-Ton-Na

Almost beyond belief are some of the cases of stomach, liver, kidney and bowel ailments, neuritis, rheumatism and extreme nervousness which are yielding to Owa-Ton-Na, which is being featured at Floding's, J. H. Lease and Bolger and French Drug Stores.

Mr. George Fritch, Route No. 2, Salem, Ohio, who for several years has been suffering with a run-down condition of health says that he was really surprised at the results that this fine medicine shows in a very short time. Mr. Fritch says that the headaches he suffered with at times made him feel that his head would split open.

His liver and bowels were in a very bad condition and he was forever constipated and felt tired and worn out even after sleeping all night. This condition seemed to get worse, bringing with it frequent attacks of indigestion with gas and bloating spells.

"When I tried Owa-Ton-Na I did not feel that the first bottle would do me a great deal of good, but I want to say it made a great change in my condition. Almost with the first dose I could see that my system was getting a real cleansing. My stomach seemed to tone up and my appetite improved greatly."

"I was not troubled with that sourness and gas as I had been before. I seemed to have renewed energy and when I got up in the morning, I did not feel tired. Dizziness disappeared and I lost that grouchy, irritable feeling. I can certainly recommend Owa-Ton-Na to those who are suffering as I had."

You too, may find in Owa-Ton-Na the medicine you have been looking for. A trial bottle will convince you and it is certainly worth that to anyone who is suffering. Owa-Ton-Na is being sold in Salem at Floding's, J. H. Lease and Bolger and French drug stores.—Adv.

LOANS up to $500

There are still a few old timers who refuse to ride in automobiles, and it's quite likely that there are certain folks who do not believe in borrowing money either, no matter how urgent their need. But the great majority of people today realize that it is a distinct advantage to be able to depend on a strong financial concern for a loan when they need it.

There is no risk in borrowing from an organization that makes a business of loaning; and to reassure those who may be skeptical The City Loan welcomes the opportunity to explain in detail how loans are made—how they are paid—and how friendliness and courtesy enter into every City Loan transaction.
